"Professor Lyman Kirkpatrick is probably the most knowledgeable person writing on American intelligence agencies today... His new book will provoke further useful debate on a timely, complex and always mysterious subject." —HARRY HOWE RANSOM, author of The Intelligence Establishment

"Scholarly, objective, informative, and a contribution of value to the history and development of the American intelligence community and the sensitive role that it plays in American life and national security." —SENATOR CLAIBORNE PELL

Lyman Kirkpatrick was a high official of the CIA from 1947 to 1965.

THE US INTELLIGENCE COMMUNITY

FOREIGN POLICY AND DOMESTIC ACTIVITIES

by LYMAN B. KIRKPATRICK, JR.

$7.95, now at your bookstore
HILL & WANG